

Blogpost #antainartists

Úna Curley | An Artist/Maker/Designer and a fire-lighting stick...

September 16th 2016: So this Artist picks up a fire-lighting stick to start the fire. Now, of course, a 'normal' person may have just lit the fire! But "Hmm! She thinks, this is a hardwood off-cut" and curiously proceeds to match up similar pieces. The Maker steps in and says Hmm! I wonder if I join these similar sticks together to make a bigger block would I be able to carve into it" and they proceed to carve a random image. Then the Designer steps in and remembers an image of a dilapidated wooden pier and thinks "Hmm! I think that could look cool on fabric". So the maker continues to sand and prepare the block for printing. And the result is...

Úna Curley is An Táin Arts Centre's visual artist in residence. Úna will be in residence in the Basement Gallery studio during July, August and September 2016. Follow her progress on Twitter @una_curley #antainartists